

The World As You Thought You Knew It is Disintegrating

If it seems that, nearly every day, yet another institution which appeared to be indestructible is collapsing before your eyes, you are not imagining things. Over the past years we have witnessed the corporate media relinquish any pretense of having any relationship to reality. The emergence of eco-fascist gangs demanding the destruction of industrial society and depopulation are trying to destroy the very notion of human progress — note that many people smiled and nodded when the abused child Greta Thunberg told the world to give up “fairy tales of eternal economic growth.” The Vatican, certainly deemed a permanent institution by its friends and its foes alike, is shaken to its roots under the weight of the sex scandals, a mass shortage of priests, and now, a Pope openly sponsoring Satanic policies, including a Synod, ongoing now, in which priests and bishops are celebrating pagan rights and supporting eco-fascism and depopulation. Then there is Wall Street, which is now on life support from the Federal Reserve printing presses, and, together with the City of London, may not survive the current year. Not to mention the British Parliamentary system, which is tearing itself apart trying to prevent the implementation of the British people’s will to exit the EU and regain national sovereignty.

Add to this mix of collapsing institutions the Congress of the United States of America. As White House Counsel Pat Cipollone clearly demonstrates in a letter delivered today to the Democrat leaders in the House of Representatives — the “People’s House” — this core institution of the American System has been transformed into a “Star Chamber,” like that of the British Crown, in which law is dispensed with altogether, to follow the whim of the royalty. What is worse, “Lord” Schiff has turned the House into an asset of a totally corrupted sector of the intelligence community, which collaborated with British, Australian, and Italian government operatives, as well as the neo-nazi leadership of Ukraine’s former government (put in power by the Obama Administration), in an effort to bring down the President of the United States — i.e., treason.

Cipollone writes that the House Democrats have: “denied the President the right to cross-examine witnesses, to call witnesses, to receive transcripts of testimony, to have access to evidence, to have counsel present, and many other basic rights guaranteed to all Americans. You have conducted your proceedings in secret. You have violated civil liberties and the separation of powers by threatening Executive Branch officials, claiming that you will seek to punish those who exercise fundamental constitutional rights and prerogatives. All of this violates the Constitution, the rule of law, and every past precedent. Never before in our history has the House of Representatives—under the control of either political party taken the American people down the dangerous path you seem determined to pursue.”

The President is rightly refusing to participate in this criminal enterprise, while the now expanding Attorney General’s investigation of the attempted coup known as “Russiagate,” and now the fake impeachment, will soon be putting these “Star Chamber” would-be judges on trial for their very real crimes.

The LaRouchePAC and EIR have documented these criminal acts from the beginning, and demonstrated that the same forces, even many of the same individuals, ran the prosecution of Lyndon LaRouche in the 1980s — for essentially the same reasons. His posthumous exoneration today will explode the illusions which have held the American population subject to information warfare over these past thirty-five years. Call on the President to exonerate LaRouche.
